These poems will be the Indian classic of the future.

— In 1949 George Clutesi said this about his friend's poems.

Our Xwelmexw youth will truly benefit from reading these poems because they contain the essence of Xwelmexw traditional beliefs and spiritual values.

—from the book's Foreword by The Honourable Steven Point, Lieutenant Governor of BC

- Rare Aboriginal 'origin' stories of the Coast Salish
- Meticulously translated from the oral tradition between 1911 and 1915
- Foreword by His Honour Steven Point, Lieutenant Governor of BC
- Illustrated for the first time by artist, Lynne Grillmair
